“O Come, O Come Emmanuel”
Chris Urquiaga, piano
alt. lyrics, Maria Swearingen

O Come, O Come Emmanuel,
Bring wonder to your people where they dwell,
The Earth is waiting to be restored,
The sun and moon and stars sing in accord.

Refrain:* Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel,
Is here with us
And making all things well.

O Come, O Come Emmanuel,
As ocean waters dance with sand and shell,
And summer turns to winter then spring,
Creation groans and grows with everything. *Refrain.

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,
You shine through night's uncertain veil,
You light the path with justice and love,
And guide us from below and from above. *Refrain.

Palabras de Alabanza | Call to Worship

Jackie Wright, Deacon

Come, friends, for now is when Advent begins, this journey of joy in the darkness.

We wait in the darkness, expectantly, longingly, anxiously, thoughtfully. The darkness is our friend.

In the darkness of the womb, we have all been nurtured and protected. In the darkness of the womb, the Christ-child was made ready for the journey into light.

You are with us, O God, in darkness and in light.

It is only in the darkness that we can see the splendour of the universe - blankets of stars, the solitary glowings of distant planets. It was the darkness that allowed the Magi to find the star that guided them to where the Christ-child lay. In the darkness of sleep, we are restored and renewed. In the darkness of sleep, dreams rise up. God spoke to Joseph through dreams. God is speaking still.

You are with us, O God, in darkness and in light.

And in that same darkness, we come face to face with what the last two years have been for us, personally and globally. We come face to face with our fatigue, our grief, our limitations. So we pray together - we know you are with us, O God, yet we still await your coming.

In the darkness of your mysterious unknowing, we watch for a sign of God's Hope.

"Make Us One | Haznos Uno"

Make us one, Lord, make us one; Holy Spirit, make us one.
Let your love flow so the world will know we are one in you.
Haznos uno, uno en ti. Haznos uno, Señor, en ti.
Y que el mundo vea en nuestro amor que somos uno en ti.

Please visit <http://www.calvarydc.org/give>. Each Sunday, we have the opportunity to engage in a spiritual practice tracing back to the early church. As followers of Jesus began re-imagining their allegiance to God and not Caesar, they also chose to share their money, time, and resources in ways that disrupted systems of power and violence around them. As a community of faith shaped by this intention as we strive to be radically inclusive, progressive, and multicultural, we pray that our commitments might free you to give to this place both joyfully and intentionally.

Música | Scripture Refrain

"Star of Wonder/Astro de Sublime Ardor"

Chris Urquiaga, piano

*O star of wonder, star of night star with royal beauty bright!
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light.*

*¡Oh, astro de sublime ardor de divino resplandor!
nuncio bello, tus destellos,
nos guiarán por su fulgor.*

³ A voice cries out: “In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

⁴ Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low;
the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

²¹ Don’t you know? Haven’t you heard? Wasn’t it announced to you from the beginning?
Haven’t you understood since the earth was founded?

²² God inhabits the earth’s horizon— its inhabitants are like locusts—stretches out the skies like a curtain and spreads it out like a tent for dwelling.

²³ God makes dignitaries useless and the earth’s judges into nothing.

²⁴ Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely is their shoot rooted in the earth
when God breathes on them, and they dry up; the windstorm carries them off like straw.

²⁵ So to whom will you compare me, and who is my equal? says the holy one. ²⁶ Look up at the sky and consider: Who created these? The one who brings out their attendants one by one, summoning each of them by name. Because of God’s great strength and mighty power, not one is missing.

--

³ Voz que clama en el desierto: Preparad camino a Jehová;
enderezad calzada en la soledad a nuestro Dios.

⁴ Todo valle sea alzado, y bájese todo monte y collado;
y lo torcido se enderece, y lo áspero se allane.

²¹ ¿No sabéis? ¿No habéis oído? ¿Nunca os lo han dicho desde el principio?
¿No habéis sido enseñados desde que la tierra se fundó?

²² Él está sentado sobre el círculo de la tierra, cuyos moradores son como langostas; él extiende los cielos como una cortina, los despliega como una tienda para morar.

²³ Él convierte en nada a los poderosos, y a los que gobiernan la tierra hace como cosa vana. ²⁴ Como si nunca hubieran sido plantados, como si nunca hubieran sido sembrados, como si nunca su tronco hubiera tenido raíz en la tierra; tan pronto como sopla en ellos se secan, y el torbellino los lleva como hojarasca. ²⁵ ¿A qué, pues, me haréis semejante o me compararéis? dice el Santo. ²⁶ Levantad en alto vuestros ojos, y mirad quién creó estas cosas; él saca y cuenta su ejército; a todas llama por sus nombres; ninguna faltará; tal es la grandeza de su fuerza, y el poder de su dominio.

Música Especial | Special Music

“Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star”

Chris Urquiaga, piano

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.

Estrellita, ¿dónde estás?
Me pregunto qué serás.
En el cielo y en el mar,
Un diamante de verdad.
Estrellita, ¿dónde estás?
Me pregunto qué serás.

When the blazing sun is gone,
When he nothing shines upon,
Then you show your little light,
Twinkle, twinkle, all the night.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.
How I wonder what you are.

Then the trav'ler in the dark,
Thanks you for your tiny spark,
She could not see which way to go,
If you did not twinkle so.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.
How I wonder what you are.

In the dark blue sky you keep,
And often thro' my curtains peep,
For you never shut your eye,
Till the sun is in the sky.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.
How I wonder what you are.

'Tis your bright and tiny spark,
Lights the trav'ler in the dark,
Tho' I know not what you are,
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.
How I wonder what you are.

Himno | Departing Hymn

“Hope is a Star”
Chris Urquiaga, piano

Hope is a star that shines in the night, leading us on till the morning is bright.

Refrain: When God is a child
There's joy in our song.
The last shall be first and the weak shall be strong,
and none shall be afraid.

Peace is a ribbon that circles the earth,
giving a promise of safety and worth. Refrain.

Joy is a song that welcomes the dawn,
telling the world that the Savior is born. Refrain.

Love is a flame that burns in our heart.
Jesus has come and will never depart. Refrain.

A RETURN TO IN-PERSON

Guidelines for Worship

Please read through these practices as we seek to ensure your safety.

When you enter:

Upon arrival, you will come through the Greene entrance by the church office. This will allow us to streamline our entrances and ensure that everyone, whether they are coming from the street or from the garage, is filtered through the same path.

When entering from the garage, please use the phone at the elevator doors to dial 0, which will connect you to the office where they will let you up. Once in the elevator, please select G1. We won't have the elevator set for open access for health and safety reasons, so we can ensure we're funneling everyone in through appropriate entry protocol.

At the entrance, you will be asked to sign in if you have not pre-registered, and your temperature will be taken to make sure you do not have a temperature.

In the building:

Once you have completed entry practices, you will make your way up to the Sanctuary entrance. Once there, the ushers will help you find a seat.

The pews will be cordoned off to half their length, alternating from row to row, to ensure we are able to social distance between pods of people while inside.

Masks will continue to be worn inside the building and during service, and hand sanitizer will be available.

After service:

We will exit the Sanctuary in an orderly, social distanced manner as we head outside for our Coffee Hour. We will be holding these outdoors to make sure we are properly social distanced and to mitigate the risks that are associated with masks being off indoors.

General Practices:

We ask that you follow all established COVID protocols: self-screen and stay home if you display any symptoms, maintain social distancing, wear your mask indoors, and wash your hands frequently and thoroughly.

OUR LABOR TOGETHER | A Mission Statement

We are a multi-racial, multi-ethnic community of Christ followers committed to the sacred work of anti-racism, social justice, and radical inclusion.

OUR BELOVEDNESS | A Values Statement

We affirm that God celebrates the creative diversity of God's kin-dom, loving people of every color, faith, nationality, immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. It matters that people who have been historically marginalized by the Christian church in America see themselves listed here as God's beloved. In other words, you are our values statement.

- We believe Black Lives Matter. Further still, Black Lives are precious and beloved by God. We are a church shaped by this profound theological statement. Until this is fully understood and expressed in the policies and practices of this nation's political and social life, it is essential for people of faith to keep saying, and living, this truth.
- We believe no human being is "illegal," and as a Sanctuary Church, we fully welcome and support people of all immigration statuses.
- We believe LGBTQ+ lives are sacred, beautiful, and ought to be fully included and affirmed in all aspects of congregational life and leadership.
- We celebrate that our worshipping life is multi-lingual and multi-dimensional, especially shaped by Latin American, particularly Salvadoran, traditions, and the Historic Black Church tradition.
- We value interfaith inclusion and welcome people of any and all faith traditions to find a home here.
- We value people for who they are and not for their role in an economy where wealth accumulates and people struggle to live.
- We acknowledge that we gather on the traditional land of the Piscataway, Anacostan, and Nacotchtank Peoples past and present, and honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations. We believe that the earth is sacred and that we must continue to learn how to be better caretakers of the land we inhabit.
- We value diverse theological voices which have long stood on the margins within the Christian tradition in America.

OUR HOLY IMAGINATION | A Vision Statement

We believe that Jesus identifies particularly with oppressed and marginalized people and invites us into radically inclusive community. As a historically white church with the sacred gift of now being a multiracial Christian community, we hear the clarion call to engage in the active and disruptive work of anti-racism and decolonization, both within ourselves and in the world. Ultimately, we commit to this labor as a joyful act of discipleship that leads us ever deeper into the Gospel of liberation and life.
