Christ the Lord is Risen Today
EASTER HYMN
Earl Hargrove, organ
Chris Urquiaga, piano

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Earth and heaven in chorus say, Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply, Alleluia!

Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids him rise, Alleluia!
Christ has opened paradise, Alleluia!

Cristo nuestro salvador, ¡Aleluya!
De la muerte vencedor, ¡Aleluya!
Pronto vamos sin cesar, ¡Aleluya!
Tus loores a cantar, ¡Aleluya!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head, Alleluia!
Made like him, like him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

*Palabras de Alabanza | Call to Worship

Celia Thomas, Deacon

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed!
Cristo resucitó!
¡Aleluya, gloria a Dios!

Exhale. Go ahead, exhale. Breathe out. Let go.
On this Easter Sunday, allow your souls to be replenished.
Take in the joy. Take in peace. Take in the togetherness.
Take what you need.

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed!
Cristo resucitó!
¡Aleluya, gloria a Dios!

Congregation stands. La congregación se pone de pie.
Para traducción del servicio en español, por favor hablar con un ujier.*

Wonder.
Wonder, and imagine, and reflect, and question, and listen.
Listen deeply to the words and the songs.
Listen deeply to the Holy Spirit.
And hear the words that God has for you.

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed!
Cristo resucitó!
¡Aleluya, gloria a Dios!

We emerge from the long days of Lent; our journey through the wilderness.
And we acknowledge that there is a darkness that seems to loom in this world.
And we remember that nestled within the great mystery of the Resurrection is a great light.
Search for that light, that hope on this day.

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed!
Cristo resucitó!
¡Aleluya, gloria a Dios!

So, we come into this space, this sacred space, and we bring ourselves; our whole selves.
We encourage you to embrace your body and we invite you to use your body to give God a hand clap of praise, to sing, to jump around, to dance, to celebrate. And, as we celebrate the Risen Savior, we invite you to bring your full selves into worship because Christ is risen!

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed!
Cristo resucitó!
¡Aleluya, gloria a Dios!

La Ofrenda | Giving to Calvary

Please visit <http://www.calvarydc.org/give>. Each Sunday, we have the opportunity to engage in a spiritual practice tracing back to the early church. As followers of Jesus began re-imagining their allegiance to God and not Caesar, they also chose to share their money, time, and resources in ways that disrupted systems of power and violence around them. As a community of faith shaped by this intention as we strive to be radically inclusive, progressive, and multicultural, we pray that our commitments might free you to give to this place both joyfully and intentionally.

I will praise you, I will praise you,
I will praise you, I will praise you!

Pasado el sábado, al amanecer del primer día de la semana, María Magdalena y la otra María fueron a ver el sepulcro. ¡Y mira! Hubo un gran terremoto, porque un mensajero de Dios, descendiendo del cielo, vino y removió la piedra y se sentó sobre ella. Su apariencia era como un relámpago, y su ropa blanca como la nieve. Por miedo al mensajero, los guardias temblaron y quedaron como muertos. Pero el mensajero respondió a las mujeres y dijo: "No temáis; Sé que todas ustedes buscan a Jesús que fue crucificado. Él no está aquí; porque ha resucitado, tal como dijo. Venid, ved el lugar donde yacía. Entonces id pronto y decid a sus discípulos: Ha resucitado de entre los muertos, y mirad, va delante de vosotras a Galilea; allí lo veréis. Este es mi mensaje para ti. Entonces las mujeres salieron rápidamente del sepulcro con temor y gran alegría y corrieron a dar la noticia a sus discípulos. Entonces, de repente, Jesús las encontró y les dijo: "¡Shalom!" Y ellas se acercaron a él, lo agarraron de los pies y se postraron adorándolo. Entonces Jesús les ayudó, "No temáis; id y decid a mis hermanas y hermanos que vayan a Galilea; allí me verán.

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Madgalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And look! There was a great earthquake, for a messenger of God, descending from heaven, came and rolled away the stone and sat upon it. Its appearance was like lightning, and its clothing white as snow. For fear of the messenger the guards shook and were as though dead. But the messenger responded to the women and said, "Fear not; I know that you all are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, just as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead, and see, he is on to Galilee ahead of you; there you will see him." This is my message for you. So the women left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples the news. Then all of a sudden Jesus met them and said, "Shalom!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and bowed down worshipping him. Then Jesus said to them, "Fear not; go and tell my sisters and brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

OUR LABOR TOGETHER | A Mission Statement

We are a multi-racial, multi-ethnic community of Christ followers committed to the sacred work of anti-racism, social justice, and radical inclusion.

OUR BELOVEDNESS | A Values Statement

We affirm that God celebrates the creative diversity of God's kin-dom, loving people of every color, faith, nationality, immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. It matters that people who have been historically marginalized by the Christian church in America see themselves listed here as God's beloved. In other words, YOU are our values statement.

- We believe Black Lives Matter. Further still, Black Lives are precious and beloved by God. We are a church shaped by this profound theological statement. Until this is fully understood and expressed in the policies and practices of this nation's political and social life, it is essential for people of faith to keep saying, and living, this truth.
- We believe no human being is "illegal," and as a Sanctuary Church, we fully welcome and support people of all immigration statuses.
- We believe LGBTQ+ lives are sacred, beautiful, and ought to be fully included and affirmed in all aspects of congregational life and leadership.
- We celebrate that our worshipping life is multi-lingual and multi-dimensional, especially shaped by Latin American, particularly Salvadoran, traditions, and the Historic Black Church tradition.
- We value interfaith inclusion and welcome people of any and all faith traditions to find a home here.
- We value people for who they are and not for their role in an economy where wealth accumulates and people struggle to live.
- We acknowledge that we gather on the traditional land of the Piscataway, Anacostan, and Nacotchtank Peoples past and present, and honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations. We believe that the earth is sacred and that we must continue to learn how to be better caretakers of the land we inhabit.
- We value diverse theological voices which have long stood on the margins within the Christian tradition in America.

OUR HOLY IMAGINATION | A Vision Statement

We believe that Jesus identifies particularly with oppressed and marginalized people and invites us into radically inclusive community. As a historically white church with the sacred gift of now being a multiracial Christian community, we hear the clarion call to engage in the active and disruptive work of anti-racism and decolonization, both within ourselves and in the world. Ultimately, we commit to this labor as a joyful act of discipleship that leads us ever deeper into the Gospel of liberation and life.
