WE DON'T TALK ABOUT ...

Well, lots of things.
So, in the spirit of one very, very, very famous song that took
the world by storm last winter, we'll be spending the rest of the summer talking about the things we often don't talk about,
especially at church.

La Ofrenda | Giving to Calvary

Please visit <http://www.calvarydc.org/give>. Each Sunday, we have the opportunity to engage in a spiritual practice tracing back to the early church. As followers of Jesus began re-imagining their allegiance to God and not Caesar, they also chose to share their money, time, and resources in ways that disrupted systems of power and violence around them. As a community of faith shaped by this intention as we strive to be radically inclusive, progressive, and multicultural, we pray that our commitments might free you to give to this place both joyfully and intentionally.

Música | Refrain

Through it All, #555

Through it all, through it all,
I've learned to trust in Jesus,
I've learned to trust in God,
Through it all, through it all,
I've learned to depend on God's word.

Oraciones del Pueblo | Prayers of the People

Eugenia Reyes, Deacon

Música | Refrain

Through it all, through it all,
I've learned to trust in Jesus,
I've learned to trust in God,
Through it all, through it all,
I've learned to depend on God's word.

Una Lectura | Scripture Lesson

Salmos | Psalm 55:4-6; 12-14

Ashley Knowles, Liturgist

My heart is in anguish within me, the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
Fear and trembling come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.
And I say, "O that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest."
It is not enemies who taunt me—I could bear that;
it is not adversaries who deal insolently with me—I could hide from them.
But it is you, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend, with whom I kept pleasant company.

Mi corazón está dolorido dentro de mí, y terrores de muerte sobre mí han caído.
Temor y temblor vinieron sobre mí, y terror me ha cubierto.
Y dije: ¡Quién me diese alas como de paloma! Volaría yo, y descansaría.
Porque no me afrentó un enemigo, Lo cual habría soportado;
Ni se alzó contra mí el que me aborrecía,
Porque me hubiera ocultado de él; Sino tú, hombre, al parecer íntimo mío,
Mi guía, y mi familiar; Que juntos comunicábamos dulcemente los secretos,
Y andábamos en amistad en la casa de Dios.

*Himno | Departing Hymn

God of All People Everywhere
O WALY WALY

God of all people everywhere
Your love for us is ours to share.
Yet victims suffer cruel blows
And words can kill where power grows.

In the complexities of life,
Keep us from being numb to strife.
Open our eyes to inner sight
And tune our ears to others' plight.

So when we hear the cries of pain
Grant us the grace to be humane.
Grant us the heart to love and care,
To be your presence standing there.

Jane Parker Huber was commissioned in 2001 by the Presbytery of Chicago's Task Force on Family Violence to write "God of All People Everywhere."

OUR LABOR TOGETHER | A Mission Statement

We are a multi-racial, multi-ethnic community of Christ followers committed to the sacred work of anti-racism, social justice, and radical inclusion.

OUR BELOVEDNESS | A Values Statement

We affirm that God celebrates the creative diversity of God's kin-dom, loving people of every color, faith, nationality, immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. It matters that people who have been historically marginalized by the Christian church in America see themselves listed here as God's beloved. In other words, you are our values statement.

- We believe Black Lives Matter. Further still, Black Lives are precious and beloved by God. We are a church shaped by this profound theological statement. Until this is fully understood and expressed in the policies and practices of this nation's political and social life, it is essential for people of faith to keep saying, and living, this truth.
- We believe no human being is "illegal," and as a Sanctuary Church, we fully welcome and support people of all immigration statuses.
- We believe LGBTQ+ lives are sacred, beautiful, and ought to be fully included and affirmed in all aspects of congregational life and leadership.
- We celebrate that our worshipping life is multi-lingual and multi-dimensional, especially shaped by Latin American, particularly Salvadoran, traditions, and the Historic Black Church tradition.
- We value interfaith inclusion and welcome people of any and all faith traditions to find a home here.
- We value people for who they are and not for their role in an economy where wealth accumulates and people struggle to live.
- We acknowledge that we gather on the traditional land of the Piscataway, Anacostan, and Nacotchtank Peoples past and present, and honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations. We believe that the earth is sacred and that we must continue to learn how to be better caretakers of the land we inhabit.
- We value diverse theological voices which have long stood on the margins within the Christian tradition in America.

OUR HOLY IMAGINATION | A Vision Statement

We believe that Jesus identifies particularly with oppressed and marginalized people and invites us into radically inclusive community. As a historically white church with the sacred gift of now being a multiracial Christian community, we hear the clarion call to engage in the active and disruptive work of anti-racism and decolonization, both within ourselves and in the world. Ultimately, we commit to this labor as a joyful act of discipleship that leads us ever deeper into the Gospel of liberation and life.
